GCSE Revision Advice

1. Start to plan your timetable today if you have not done so already.
2. Divide each subject into major topic areas and then see how you can fit these into the time you have remaining.
3. Make sure you allow time in the schedule for practice papers.
4. Also make sure you allow time for revisiting material prior to the exam.
5. Use active revision methods.
6. Personalise your planner and pin it up at home.
