Dear Students

RGSHW CO-CURRICULAR – Photography Competition

On 26th March we launched the RGS Co-Curricular Photography Competition. In part this was to challenge students to think about their local environment as well as to offer them the opportunity to capture and keep a record of what is very likely going to be a unique time in British history. I have been thoroughly impressed with the commitment and effort made by those who entered. I am sure you have been waiting with anticipation and I wanted to share with you all the results below.

Winners

- Life On Lockdown
Home Haircut – Noah Pitron
- Home Schooling
Home Hub – Jay Tamber
- Nature
Bird on a Wing – Ben Atkinson
- Abstract
Wild Grass Tiles – Duncan Swan

Judges Honourable Mentions

- Mr Silvey – Life On Lockdown - Rocco Pitron
- Mrs Forster – Home School Lambing – Felix Palmer
- Mr Eve – Forest Reflection – James Pang
- Mrs Francis – Abstract – Oliver Drake
- Mr Clatworthy – Wild Bunch – Bhargav Rentala

All winning photographs and honourable mentions will be posted on school social media so please do look out for them over the coming days.

Again, thank you to all boys who participated. It has been an incredibly difficult competition to judge and the standard has been high across the board. All those involved in the judging process have been inspired and humbled by the effort and engagement from students. Well done!

Yours sincerely,

Dominic Clatworthy
