Wednesday 3rd December 2025, 18:00 (Virtual via GoogleMeet)

We are delighted to invite students and parents to our Degree/Higher Apprenticeships Evening Talk, to be held virtually, via GoogleMeet. With increasing interest in Apprenticeships as an alternative pathway to the traditional university route, this event is designed to provide valuable insights into the realm of this post-18 pathway and offers a unique opportunity to explore the diverse and rewarding career options it presents. Whether you are a student eager to begin your professional journey or a parent seeking to understand the benefits of apprenticeships, this evening, supported by top global employers, promises to be informative. Our expert speakers will share their experiences, answer questions and provide guidance to support students in making well-informed choices for their future.
