

Home/School Agreement

Staff and Governors at The Royal Grammar School believe that students will have the best opportunity to achieve their full potential if school, parents and students themselves work together in partnership.

As a student, I will:

- attend school and arrive punctually at the start of the school day and for all lessons;
- wear the correct uniform smartly and bring the correct equipment each day;
- work hard to achieve targets set with my teachers;
- help other students by allowing every teacher to teach and every learner to learn;
- become involved in the life of the school by involvement in the co-curricular programme;
- behave well on the journey to and from school;
- behave well in and out of class, follow the School Rules, the RGS policies, and meet the school's expectations;
- conduct myself at all times with honesty, humility, integrity and respect;
- respect and care for others and their property (including school property);
- care for my Planner and record all homework details in an effective manner;
- give my best effort on all tasks;
- meet all deadlines for handing in homework and coursework;
- find out what opportunities are available to me and participate where possible;
- pass any letters, notes and reports to parents on the day they are issued;
- talk with parents and teachers about any concerns in school;
