Information for Candidates

FROM THE HEADMASTER

RGS is an exceptional place. We have a vision to be seen as world class in offering those most naturally able the best that a state funded school can offer. We have a proud tradition, dating back to the 13th Century of educating young men.

We have high academic standards, excellent examination results and consistently feature amongst the top state schools in England. Almost all students progress to good universities including approximately 15 – 18 to Oxford and Cambridge, other stellar institutions and to the USA.

Our broad and balanced curriculum is not the full story and we look far beyond its confines with a vast array of co-curricular opportunities unparalleled, I believe, in the state sector.

Our innovative teachers deliver a high-quality classroom experience combined with exceptional pastoral care. We ensure that, in this large school, every boy is known as an individual.

We encourage all Wycombiensiens to be self-confident, positive, healthy and enquiring young men who acquire the qualities of tolerance and respectfulness embodied through a modesty of manner. The result is a happy, close-knit community where we enjoy each other's company, and friendships for life are formed.

Most of our students are day boys. Boarding, however, has a unique capacity to shape the lives of young people and RGS offers this provision to 70 boys. Full and weekly boarding is on offer and pays a substantial role within the life of the school.

You will very much enjoy working with the boys here who are courteous, committed, caring and entertaining. The commitment and dedication of staff who all work towards achieving our vision are the vital component in ensuring the success of RGS. We are looking for well-qualified and enthusiastic colleagues to join us who are passionate about their subject and responsibility, and are willing to go the extra mile to be a part of our exciting journey.

I hope that you find the information of use and look forward to receiving your application if you feel that this opportunity would suit what you have to offer. Thank you for your interest in RGS.

I am delighted that you are considering joining us.

Best wishes

Philip Wayne

Departmental Information

The RGS English Department is an exciting place to be and the emphasis is very much on a forward-thinking approach to the subject. Each member of the team combines expertise with a clear passion for developing new approaches to teaching and learning. The successful applicant will have drive, energy, enthusiasm and a sense of humour. We want teachers who love their subject and want to work as part of a team to make our English department the very best.

Responsibilities

The person appointed will teach levels in the school that best fit their experience.

Curriculum

All pupils study both English Language and English Literature to GCSE level. In all years, they have about 3 hours of lessons per week, and they are set two homeworks. Drama is taught in Years 8 and 9 as a separate module. Each year group progresses towards end of year examinations or mock exams.

English in the Junior School

Teaching in Years 7, 8 and 9 delivers a wide variety of both non-fiction and fictional texts which most benefit the boys at the RGS. Likewise, it attempts to build the skills that prepare students for GCSE.

English in the Middle School

Both English Language and English Literature GCSE are taken by all boys in Year 11. They achieve a high academic standard; it is our expectation that 100% of students achieve 9-4 GCSE grades.

We follow the AQA specifications for GCSE English Language and GCSE English Literature. Both courses are 100% externally examined, in line with the new 1-9 GCSE specifications.

Sixth Form Teaching

English Literature is a popular choice at A level, with approximately 40 boys choosing English in each year group. An average sized set would have 15-20 boys and an average year would have two sets of English Literature. A level results are outstanding and in any year there are 5-10 students applying to read English at Oxford, Cambridge and other universities.

Co-Curricular

There is a thriving society called 'Vulture' that organises visits to theatres, cinemas, ballet and opera both locally and in London and Stratford. Boys who join the society are sure of a set number of outings per year. As well as this, we try to take groups to relevant performances – particularly of examination set texts. RGS participate annually in the Rotary Club's national public speaking competition, 'Youth Speaks', with four teams entering from across the school. Likewise, the department runs a weekly debating society and have newly set up links with a local girls' school, Wycombe Abbey, in hope of future competitions. The Department also prides itself on the out of class support it provides to all groups of individuals who need it, as well as the 'open-door' policy to members of the department.

Library

There is a well-stocked Library which is a school-wide resource. Teachers of English introduce their pupils to the Library by means of a short course. Year 7 & 8 students follow the 'Accelerated Reader' programme to promote excellent reading habits. Likewise, teachers of English should expect one timetabled Library lesson per week with their Year 7 and 8 classes.

Career Development at RGS

Alex Wallace, Geography, Deputy Head

School attended: West Buckland School

University: Birmingham University and Bath University

Career so far at RGS: I joined the school in 2007 as second in the Geography Department. I enjoyed being involved in designing schemes of work and taking responsibility for a Key Stage. I was then appointed to Head of Year 10 and 11. This was an incredibly rewarding role; I enjoyed leading a team of tutors and was passionate about my Year Group having the best possible experience at RGS. The challenges that this role gave me, prepared me well for my Assistant Headteacher position. My main responsibility was, and continues to be, Teaching and Learning. The change in role meant I spend more time with our incredible staff. The Senior Team often provide the steer in terms of Teaching and Learning but I love seeing the different styles and approaches which are encouraged to flourish, which inspire our boys on a daily basis. As Deputy Headmaster I oversee the day-to-day running of the school, I love the role. I am very early on in my tenure, but it is a real privilege to be in this position working with inspirational teachers and students.

What I love about RGS, apart from the boys! The fact it allows me to love coming to work. I am incredibly proud to say I work at the RGS. The students are very special; they are inspiring, creative, challenging and most importantly fun! I would also suggest exactly the same applies to the staff! There is a real community at the RGS, you notice this in lessons, assemblies, staff badminton, staff football and especially the staff brewery evenings. More than anything, I enjoy the friendly and approachable nature of all staff. There are always people to ask for guidance and support in any circumstance. Everyone including boys, parents, governors and staff want RGS to be the best possible place. What other state school would have 21 members of staff giving up most Saturdays to take a rugby side? This is a truly committed staff and I can't imagine working anywhere else.

James Eve, English, Assistant Head

School attended: Ipswich School (1981-1992)

University: University of St Andrews (undergraduate MA), University of York (postgraduate MA)

Career so far at RGS: I joined as an Assistant Head in September 2016 from Magdalen College School. I've absolutely loved my time at RGS. Right from the start, I felt welcomed and support by the staff, who all have a great 'can do' attitude, and the boys are bright and sparky and a joy to teach in the classroom. As an English teacher, I often find myself challenged to think about the texts I teach in new ways by discussions in class. I've also enjoyed being part of the rich co-curricular life of the school. Over the past five years, I've taken charge of the Fencing team, been involved with the Cross-Country squad and started a new school newspaper.

What I love about RGS, apart from the boys! The strong sense of community that binds together boys, staff and parents. This continues long after the boys leave. I've lost count of the number of former pupils who have returned for social or sporting events, or have demonstrated the clearest expression of faith and fondness for their alma mater by sending their own sons to the school.

This is general information for all who apply for a post at RGS. Some of it will not be relevant to this post, but I trust that you will find it useful in forming a picture of the School.

Teaching at RGS

There are approximately 90 teachers at the Royal Grammar School. RGS teachers are hardworking, gifted professionals who are able to inspire pupils with their enthusiasm and subject knowledge. They are committed to providing high quality teaching as well as playing a full and purposeful role in the School's extensive co-curricular programme.

Our teachers are specialists in their subjects and most have postgraduate teaching certificates. Those arriving without a PGCE are encouraged and supported to gain such a qualification soon after appointment. Continuing professional development is strongly encouraged and the School has good links with local universities, teaching schools and industry. We are associated with the Astra Alliance Initial Teacher Training programme, offering 'on the job' training in certain subjects, some with bursaries. Further details on request.

The School also follows the Astra Alliance induction programme for Newly Qualified Teachers, led by the professional tutor. We have a healthy balance of staff, from NQTs to very experienced teachers, as well as a wide spread across the age range. This mix of experience and background provides for a happy, stimulating and rewarding environment. The staff common room, in School House, is a busy and vibrant place.

Opportunities at RGS

As a teacher at RGS, you will also be expected to contribute in some way to the School's extensive co-curricular life. You will be encouraged to use your personal strengths and interests, and may even wish to become qualified in areas previously unimagined. The vast array of clubs and societies take place each week and RGS members of staff are rich in experience and expertise, which helps to maximise the wealth of activities on offer to our boys. The vast amount of worldwide travel involved in our expeditions, sports and musical tours and subject-based visits provides an unparalleled opportunity for both staff and students to broaden their horizons.

Perhaps most importantly, you will join our strong pastoral team as a form tutor, which gives all staff the opportunity to get to know a group of boys well and outside your teaching subject.

Support staff at RGS

Support staff at RGS provide a vital role in ensuring that the School not only runs smoothly but continues to develop. Whether joining one of the administration teams, being a technician, a support assistant, gap student, and working on the finances or around the extensive school estate, RGS welcomes colleagues from all backgrounds to bring an added dimension to our staff body. A range of roles exists from part time, term time only to full time and support staff have excellent opportunities to contribute towards school life. Although we do not ask our support staff to undertake teaching roles, we warmly encourage participate in school trips and co-curricular activities as identified above.

Sports facilities, which have recently been upgraded, include 33 acres of playing fields, a 25 metre indoor heated Swimming Pool, Cricket nets, Eton Fives courts, a modern Fitness Suite, Sports Hall and Cricket Pavilion. The most recent acquisitions are a brand new, floodlit all-weather surface and a new rugby pitch.

The governors are able to offer low-cost single accommodation on the school estate. We have around eight members of staff living on site, some of whom joined us as NQTs and are therefore able to help and encourage new entrants to the profession and 'away from home' teachers. This house is just two minutes' walk from the RGS and ten minutes' walk to the mainline railway station.
